

Things to do in Adelaide

Hahndorf

The ROAR venue (Adelaide Hills Convention Centre) is a 10 – 20-minute walk to the main street in Hahndorf. Explore more than one hundred shops, including a leather smith, jeweller, brewery, wineries, distillery, chocolatier, German-style pubs, bakeries, restaurants and cafés¹. Hahndorf is located in the Adelaide Hills of South Australia and is the oldest surviving Germanic settlement in Australia, founded 1839¹.

Escape the CBD

- Glenelg is just a 20 minute Tram ride from Adelaide's CBD. Glenelg is Adelaide's most popular beach with nightlife and activities to suit all ages.
- Surrounded by stunning beaches, islands, rocky cliffs, granite boulders, rivers and fertile farmland, Victor Harbor offers an amazing range of activities and adventures. If you love the outdoors and nature, Victor Harbor is the perfect place to visit².
- The Barossa is one of the world's great wine producing areas, boasting more than 150 wineries and 80 cellar doors. When you're not sipping the region's top drops, you can admire the vines from a hot air balloon, dine at renowned restaurants and explore nearby villages and national parks³.
- You'll find more than 50 cellar doors between the towns of Auburn and Clare, along a stunning 40km corridor. Five-star wineries are scattered throughout the Clare Valley; its signature wine, Riesling, is among the world's best⁴.
